National Kid's Fishing Day

In celebration of National Fishing and Boating Week, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers at Mark Twain Lake host Kid's Fishing Day annually, for children five to twelve years of age. Participation is limited to the 25 children. The event takes place from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Frank Russell Recreation Area. The Missouri Department of Conservation provides fishing equipment. A casting contest is conducted by the Mark Twain Bassmasters and experts instruct young anglers on basic fishing techniques. Lunch is provided for participants. Partners include Mark Twain Bassmasters and the Missouri Department of Conservation. Sponsors include: Hickman IGA, Walmart, 154 Marine, Hobby Hut, South Fork Resort, C & R Market, Buckman's Convenience Store and Ruba's General Store.
