Location and Description:

Horseshoe Lake is a shallow oxbow lake located in the floodplain of the Mississippi River in Alexander County, Illinois. Over time, it has experienced declining fisheries and waterfowl habitat and declining cypress/tupelo regeneration. The Ecosystem Restoration Report (ERR) will examine the feasibility of a causeway construction, a dewatering pump, and well installation to help restore the lake’s ecosystem.