

AUTHORIZATION:

Water Resources Development Act of 1986
(Public Law 99-662)

Location and Description:

The project is located in Ste. Genevieve County, Missouri, adjacent to the west bank of the Mississippi River between miles 121 and 125 above the confluence of the Ohio River. The project consists of a 3.5 mile long levee that provides Urban Design Flood protection from Mississippi River flooding; a gravity drain pump station facility with a 575 cubic feet per second capacity and three electric-powered pumps; a 505-acre ponding area; interior drainage ditching and grading; two closure structures; road, railroad, and utility relocations; 24 relief wells; tree screens; an environmental mitigation area; and other features. The authorized project includes channel widening and one small levee along North and South Gabouri Creeks and recreation facilities such as picnic areas and trails on flood control lands along the tributary improvements and the levee.

