U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Will Waive Day Use / Camping Fees For active duty service personnel on temporary leave from duty in Iraq

St. Louis, Mo. – The U. S. Army Corps of Engineers announced Monday that it will waive day use and camping fees for active duty service personnel on temporary leave from duty in Iraq for the duration of United States operations there.

“This waiving of day use and camping fees for active duty service personnel is a great way to show our support and appreciation for those serving in Iraq,” Col. Kevin Williams, Commander, St. Louis District, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, said.

“The St. Louis District is proud to participate and will honor the selfless service of these men and women to our nation and the world.”

Service personnel on R&R will be required to show identification and leave orders to obtain the waiver. The waiver will also apply to all family members accompanying the serviceman or woman.

The Corps will waive camping fees on a walk-up and space-available basis as well as through the National Recreation Reservation Service (NRRS) call center. Camping fees will not be waived for on-line reservations made through ReserveUSA.com

The following St. Louis District project offices will participate in the waiver:

Carlyle Lake (Carlyle, Ill.)	618-594-2484
Lake Shelbyville (Shelbyville, Ill.)	217-774-3951
Mark Twain Lake (Monroe City, Mo.)	573-735-4097
Rend Lake (Benton, Ill.)	618-724-2493
Wappapello Lake (Wappapello, Mo.)	573-222-8562
