

CARLYLE LAKE

Weekend Programs May 23-26, 2014

Expect the Unexpected

Swimming is a great way to stay cool and have fun during summer's hot weather. It's important to know how to swim safe! Come out and enjoy games and activities as you learn how to keep yourself and others safe when in, on, or around the water.

Friday, 8:00 p.m. Cattail Cove Amphitheater, Coles Creek
Saturday, 8:00 p.m. Brewster Creek Amphitheater, Boulder
Sunday, 8:00 p.m. West Bay Amphitheater, Dam West

The Bold and Majestic

Did you know that the Bald Eagle was officially declared the National Emblem of the United States in 1782? Come to this program to learn other fun facts, characteristics and habitats of these majestic birds.

Friday, 8:00 p.m. West bay Amphitheater, Dam West
Saturday, 8:00 p.m. Cattail Cove Amphitheater, Coles Creek
Sunday, 8:00 p.m. Brewster Creek Amphitheater, Boulder

Goodness Snakes!

What do snakes eat? How do snakes move? Do snakes have bones? Come learn about the mysterious and misunderstood snake. A live Prairie King Snake will be on hand at this program.

Friday, 8:00 p.m. Brewster Creek Amphitheater, Boulder
Saturday, 8:00 p.m. West Bay Amphitheater, Dam West
Sunday, 8:00 p.m. Cattail Cove Amphitheater, Coles Creek

Water Safety

On Saturday, Sunday and Monday afternoon, Park Rangers will be at the Dam West, Coles Creek, Keyesport, and McNair beaches presenting water safety activities. Enjoy games and free prizes as you learn how to keep yourself and others safe when in, on, or near the water.

Dam West and McNair Beaches—2:30 p.m.
Coles Creek and Keyesport Beaches—3:30 p.m.
